REPORT

Date May 29, 1936

Subject Execution of Warrant No. 9790 issued at the request of the Public Safety Bureau.

Made by D.P.S. Hanchman.

Forwarded by L. J. J. Lopez

At 12.50 a.m. on 24th May 1936 a party of Municipal Police in conjunction with the Public Safety Bureau visited house No. 74, Mai Ding Faung, Wuhu Road, the address designated in the warrant. It was found that the room over the kitchen was vacant but was stocked with a large quantity of communistic literature. A watch was kept on the room to see that no person entered but at 10 a.m. on 24th May, it having been ascertained that no person had attempted to enter the room, the literature, about 2 tons in all, was removed to Louza Station. Enquiries in the vicinity failed to reveal to whom the literature or the room belonged. The literature on examination proved to be communist propaganda.

EXECUTION OF SEARCH WARRANT NO.9790.

At 12.30.a.m. on the 24-5-36, D.S.I. Coyne, in company with Supt. Yang Yeh Ling (signature) attached to the Shanghai Public Safety Bureau, came to this Station with a Search Warrant, as under.

Search Warrant No.9790, issued by Judge Duen at the request of the Shanghai Public Safety Bureau.

Address:- Room above the kitchen of House No.74, Hai Ping Fung, Wukm Road, off Fokien Road.

To search for and seize certain communistic literature on the above mentioned premises. This warrant may be executed at night in accordance with Article 146 Section 1 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

The undersigned and G.D.S.164 rendered the necessary assistance, and upon proceeding to the disclosed address, found the room vacant, but stocked with a large quantity of literature, which upon examination, was stated to be of communistic nature.

Due to the lateness of the night, detectives were placed in the room, pending fuller examination.

At 10.a.m. on the 24-5-36, it was ascertained that no persons had attempted to enter the room in which the literature was placed, and all books stored on the premises, amounting to about 2 tons, were brought to the Station for safe custody.

Respectful request for further action at this address.
